

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
EASTERN DISTRICT OF MICHIGAN
SOUTHERN DIVISION

JAMES SPRATT,

Plaintiff,

v.

MONEY RECOVERY NATION WIDE.,
et al.,

Defendants.

Case No. 17-12350

Honorable Laurie J. Michelson

Magistrate Judge R. Steven Whalen

ORDER ACCEPTING REPORT AND RECOMMENDATION [37]
DISMISSING DEFENDANTS MONEY RECOVERY NATION WIDE, EXPERIAN AND TRANSUNION

---

Before the Court is Magistrate Judge R. Steven Whalen's Report and Recommendation. (ECF No. 37.) At the conclusion of his July 8, 2019 Report and Recommendation, Magistrate Judge Whalen notified the parties that they were required to file any objections within fourteen days of service, as provided in Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 72(b)(2) and Eastern District of Michigan Local Rule 72.1(d), and that "[f]ailure to file specific objections constitutes a waiver of any further right of appeal." (ECF No. 37, PageID.142.) No objections have been filed. As it is now July 29, 2019, the time to file objections has expired.

The Court finds that the parties' failure to object is a procedural default, waiving review of the Magistrate Judge's findings by this Court. In United States v. Walters, 638 F.2d 947, 949–50 (6th Cir. 1981), the Sixth Circuit established a rule of procedural default, holding that "a party shall file objections with the district court or else waive right to appeal." And in Thomas v. Arn, 474 U.S. 140, 144 (1985), the Supreme Court explained that the Sixth Circuit's waiver-of-appellate-review rule rested on the assumption "that the failure to object may constitute a procedural default waiving review even at the district court level.” 474 U.S. at 149; see also Garrison v. Equifax Info. Servs., LLC, No. 10-13990, 2012 WL 1278044, at *8 (E.D. Mich. Apr. 16, 2012) (“The Court is not obligated to review the portions of the report to which no objection was made.” (citing Thomas, 474 U.S. at 149–52)). The Court further held that this rule violates neither the Federal Magistrates Act nor the Federal Constitution.

The Court therefore finds that the parties have waived further review of the Magistrate Judge’s Report and accepts his recommended disposition. It follows that Defendants Money Recovery Nation Wide, Experian, and Transunion are DISMISSED WITHOUT PREJUDICE under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 4(m) for failure of timely service of process.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
